

Doctoral education in NamSU (Pedagogy)

Pulatkhon Lutfullayev

Head of the International Relation Department of the Namangan State University

e-mail: pulathon2001@gmail.com

Namangan province

Area 7,900 km²

Population is about 2 mln

Density 236 / km²

Province center: Namangan city

Namangan State University

Web page: www.namdu.uz

Address: 316, Uychi street, Namangan city, 160100, Republic of UZBEKISTAN

- Established in 1942 as a Pedagogical Institute
- Obtained university status in 1992
- Located in and only the university in Namangan province
- Student population over 5000
- Teaching staff 450

Doctorate programs

Full-time

02.00.10 - Bioorganic chemistry

11.00.09 - Meteorology, climate studies and agro-meteorology

01.01.02 - Differential equations

08.00.04 - Agricultural complex economy

07.00.10 - Political institutions and processes

Part-time

01.01.02 – Physics and mathematics sciences

01.04.10 – Physics and mathematics sciences

02.00.10 – Chemistry sciences

07.00.01 –History sciences

08.00.04 –Economical sciences

09.00.04 –Philosophy sciences

10.00.07 – Philological sciences

11.00.04 – Geographical sciences

12.00.09 – Juridical sciences

13.00.01 –Pedagogical sciences

14.00.00 – Natural sciences

Types of doctoral student status:

- Full doctoral student (monthly salary provided), 3 years duration
- Part-Time doctoral (simultaneous with work), 3 years. Unofficial (collegial) support by colleagues.
- Individual researchers (no time limit)

Fields of doctoral education in pedagogy:

- 13.00.01 – Theory and history of pedagogy. Educational management
- 13.00.02 – teaching and upbringing theory and methodology (by fields)
- 13.00.03 – Special pedagogy
- 13.00.04 – Physical culture and sport theory and methodology
- 13.00.05 – Professional education theory and methodology
- 13.00.06 – Electronic education theory and methodology

PhD dissertation requirements in pedagogy:

- At least two chapters (mostly 3), at least 120 (maximum 144) pages excluding appendixes, bibliography.
- Last chapter should be focused on applicability of the research result in practice. Includes experimental works, data analyses and proof of hypothesis.
- Publications: 1 in international referred journals, 1 in international conference referred periodical, 3 country level referred journals.
- Minimum exams: Foreign language, Specialized subject, extra exam (if master degree is in different area than the field of PhD)
- Act of application (from the institution and ministry)