

UNIVERSIDAD
DE GRANADA

ESCUELA INTERNACIONAL DE POSGRADO

DOCTORAL STUDIES University of Granada

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDIES

International school for postgraduate studies

- ✓ 104 master degrees
- ✓ 28 Doctoral programs
- ✓ 55 courses specialization

- Created in 2009. Increase quality of postgraduate studies

Construcción del EEES

Declaración de Bolonia (1999)

Construcción del Espacio Europeo de Investigación

Principios de Salzburgo (2005)

Real Decreto 56/2005		RD 1393/2007		Real Decreto 99/2011
Programas Oficiales de Posgrado		Doctorado		Doctorado
Máster	→	Doctorado	Periodo de formación	Periodo de investigación	Fase de formación

- Global / European Context:

- ✓ Adapt to Bologna
- ✓ Implement Salzburg principle

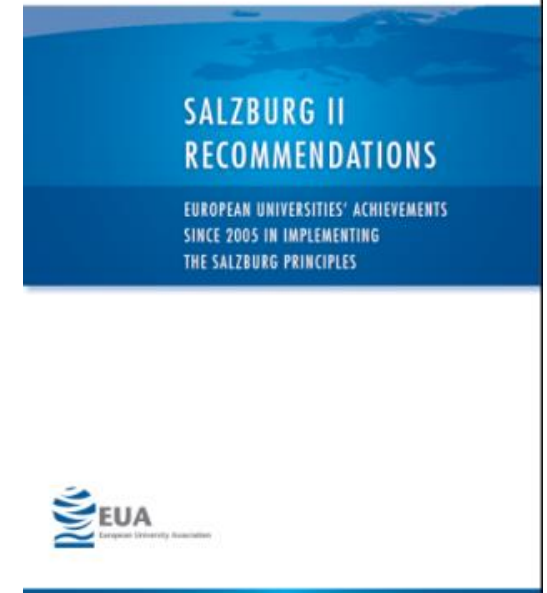

International school for postgraduate studies

Framework to implement global European strategies

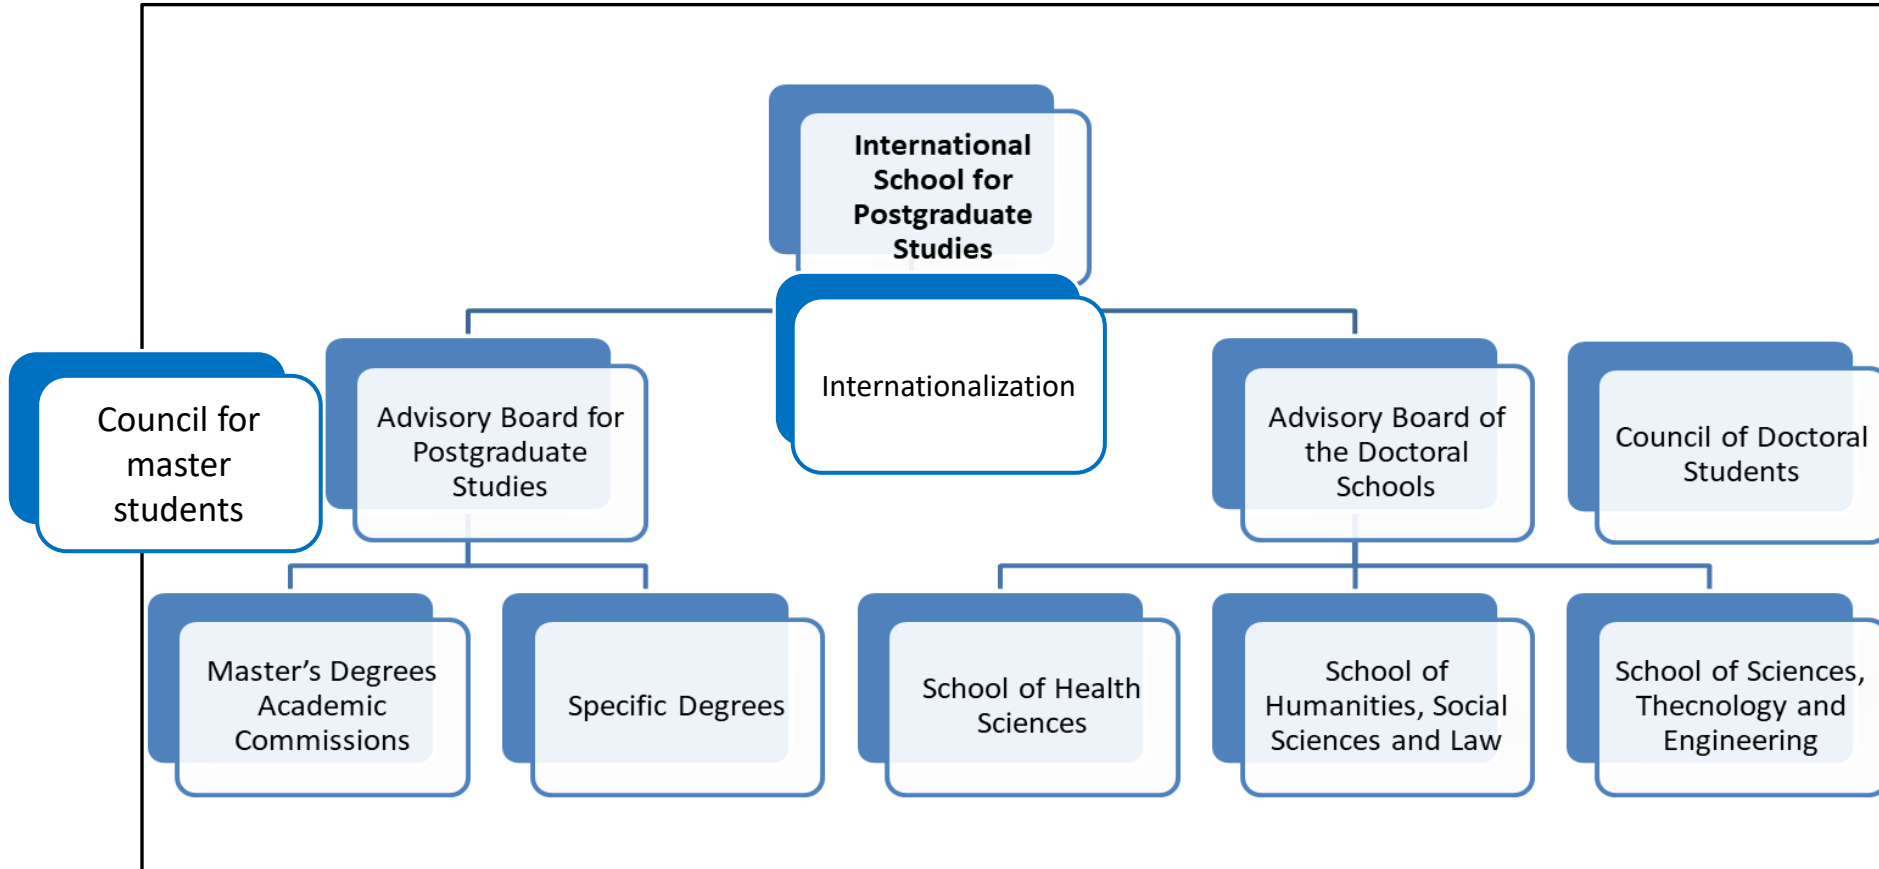

- Adapt to needs of the society:
 - ✓ High level specialised people
 - ✓ Experts with highly qualified knowledge
 - ✓ High qualities to innovate and transfer knowledge to society.

- Continuity between masters and doctoral programs
 - ✓ Systemic knowledge of field
 - But also
 - ✓ Abilities to transfer to society
 - communication (more than one language)
 - Professional skills
 - Digital competence
 - International networking
 - institutional engagement

International school for postgraduate studies

Academic Structure

Doctoral Schools

200 new doctoral candidates

Health Sciences

- Biomedicine
- Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
- Pharmacy
- Clinical Medicine and Public Health
- Nutrition and food technology
- Psychology

300 new doctoral candidates

Sciences, Technology & Engineering

- Fundamental and Systems Biology
- Earth Sciences
- Biogeochemical Fluid Dynamics
- Mathematical & Applied Statistics
- Physics and Space Sciences
- Physics and Mathematics
- Civil Engineering
- Mathematics
- Chemistry
- Information & Communication

350 new doctoral candidates

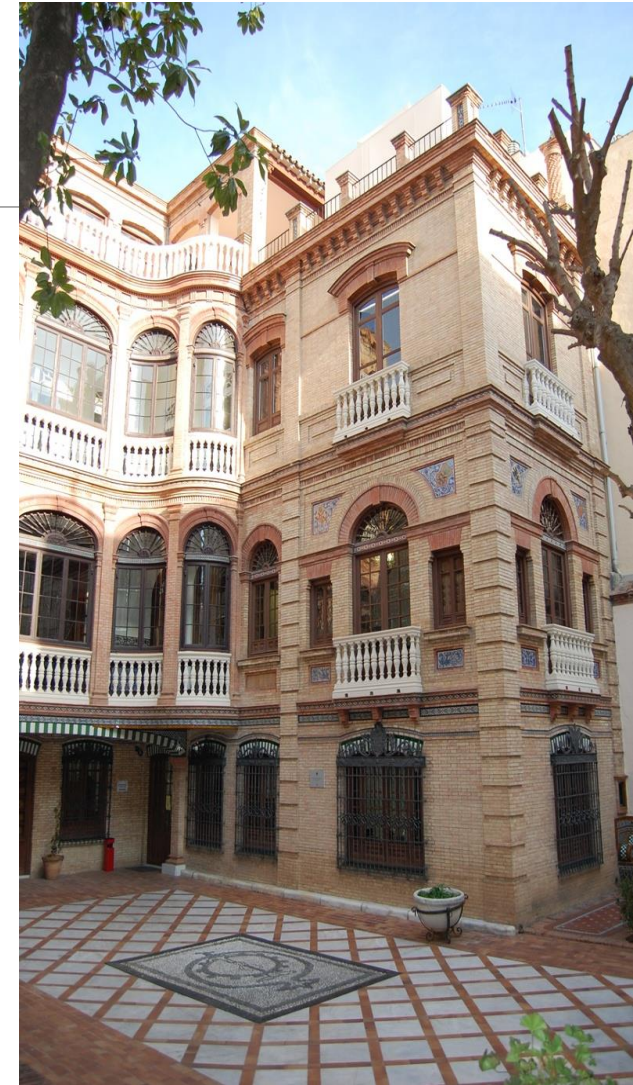

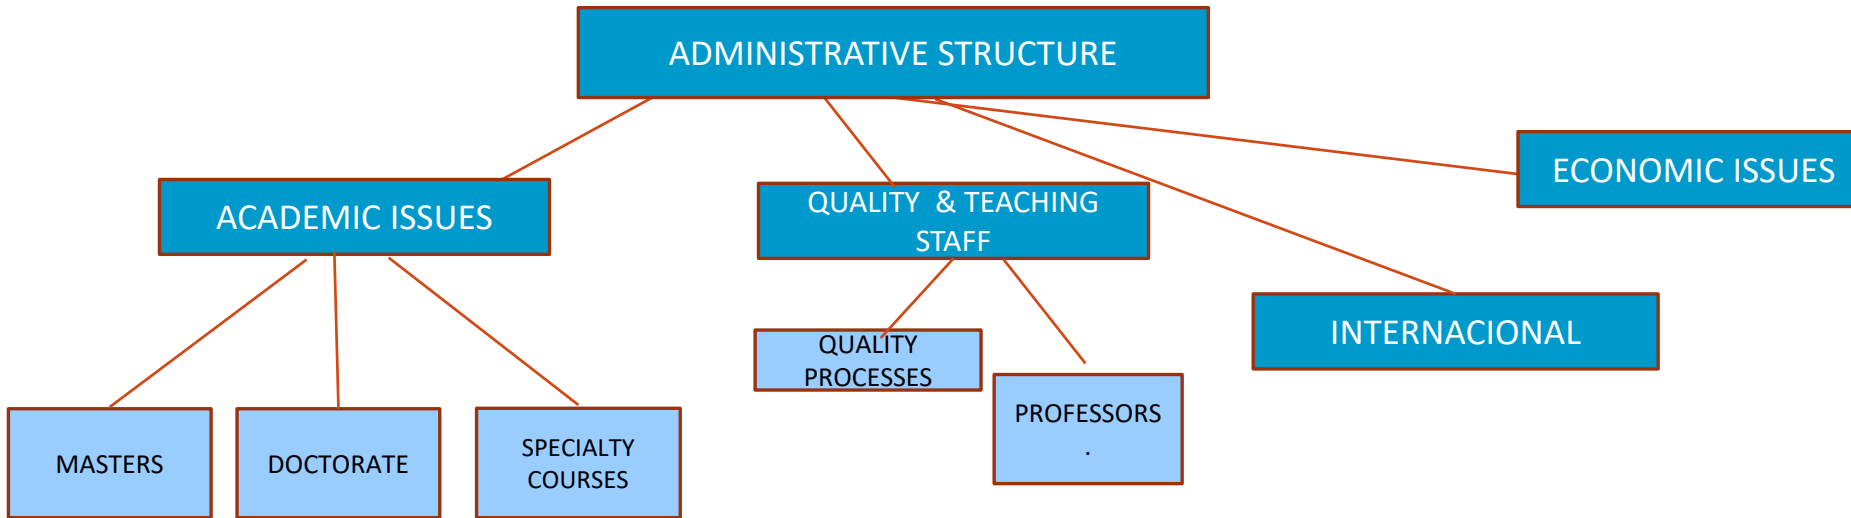

Humanities, Social Sciences, & Law

- Arts and Education
- Economics & Business studies
- Education
- Law
- Social Sciences
- City, Territory and Planning
- Criminology
- Migration Studies
- Philosophy
- History and the Arts
- Languages, Texts & Contexts
- Women's Studies

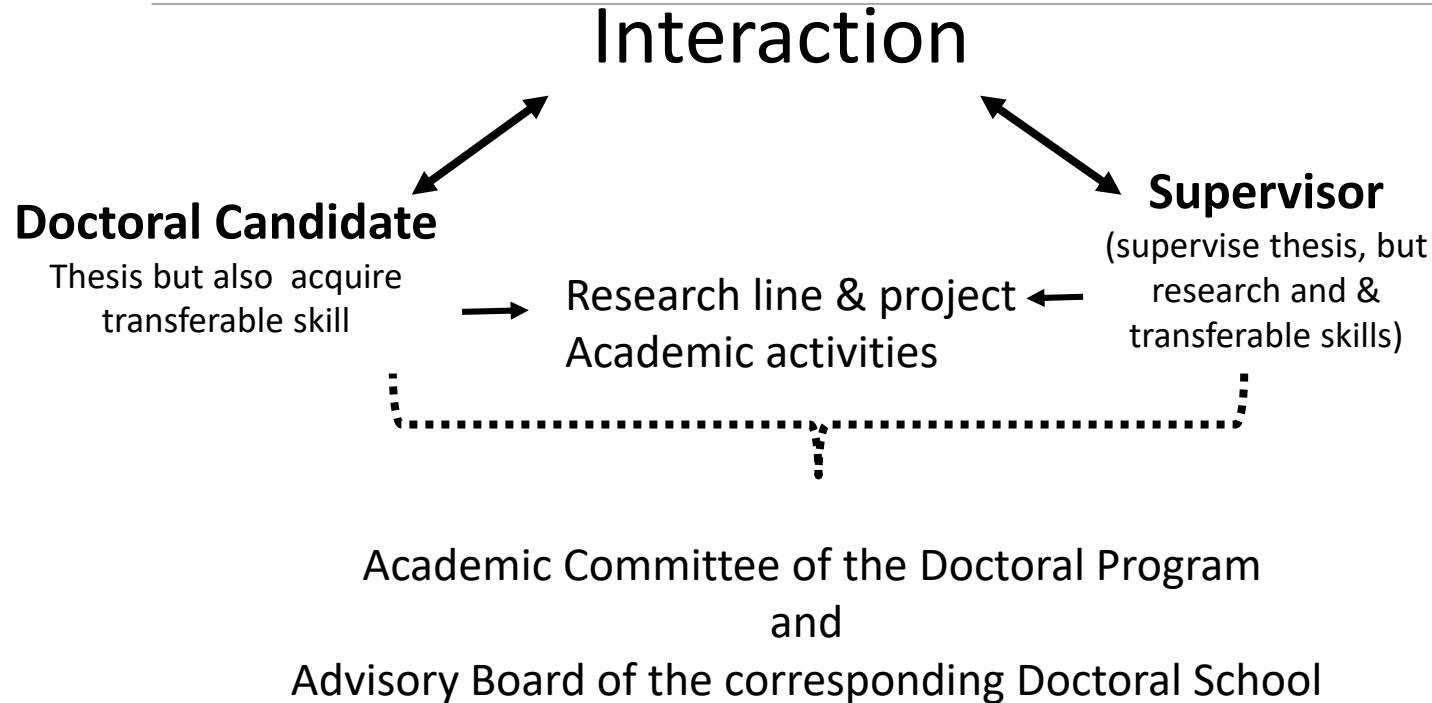

250 thesis/year - 80 International

International school for postgraduate studies

Administrative Structure

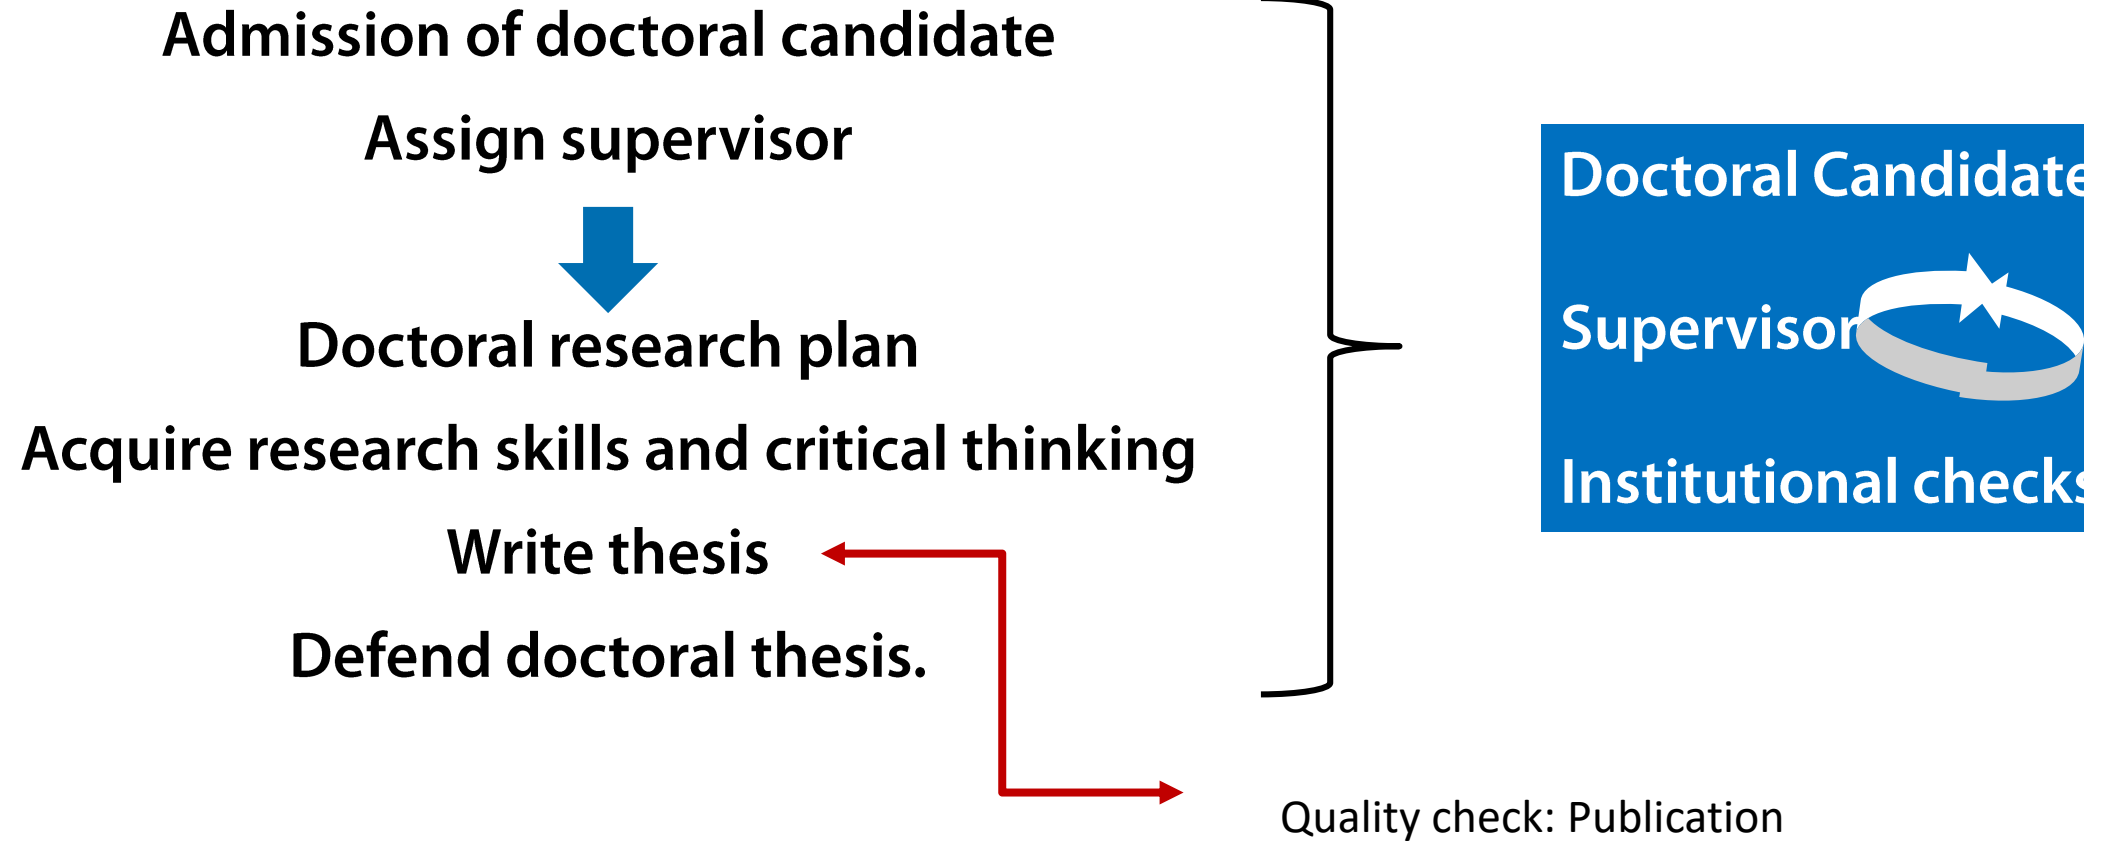

DOCTORAL PROGRAMS

Doctoral Programs

- Research lines
- Thesis supervisors
- Academic activities
 - Methodological courses
 - Conferences & seminars
 - Meetings with research group
 - Mobility
 - publications

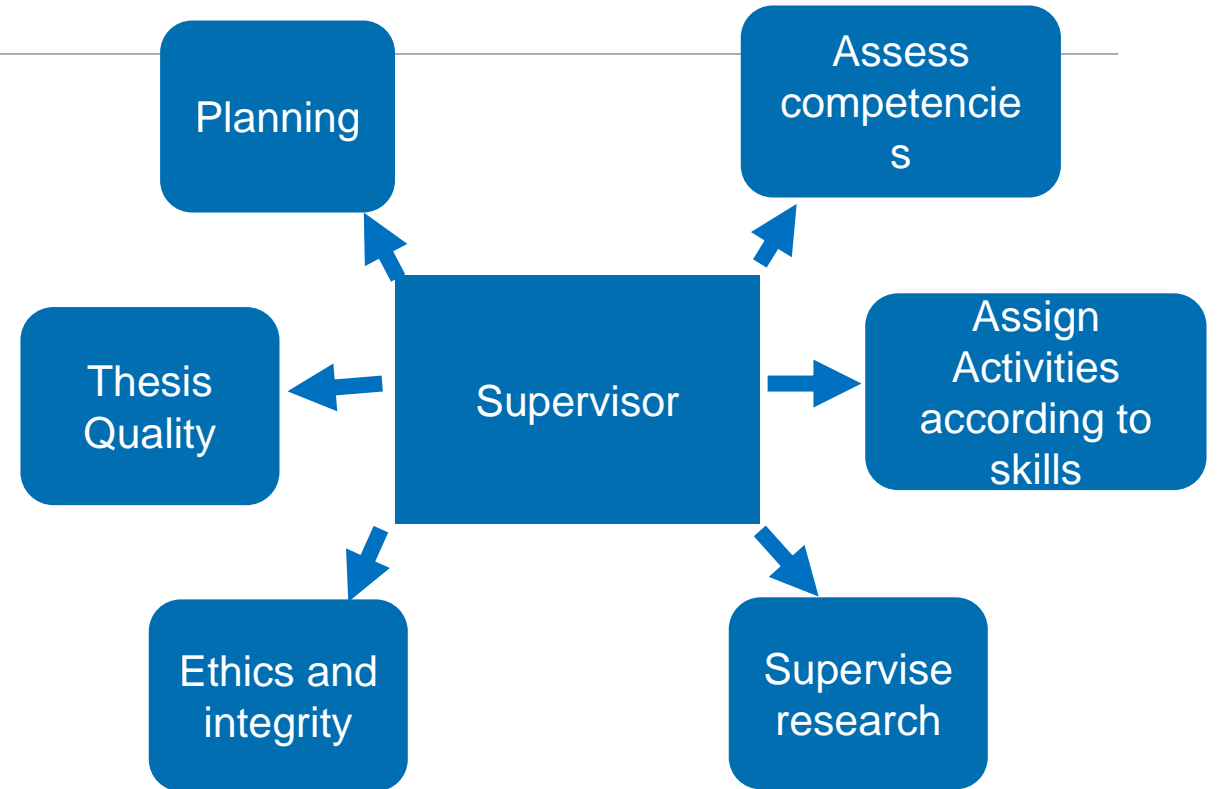

Processes toward the PhD

The supervisor

Supervisor

- Excellent researcher
- High quality publications
- Funded projects
- Experience in supervising
- Stablished research group
- International network
- Committed to spend time

The doctoral candidate.

Committed and motivated to:

Research and communication skills

- Critical thinking and initiative
- Research Project
- Methodological competence
- Written and oral communication (more than one language).
- Digital competences.

Disseminate research results and activities.

- General public (blogs, social networks..)
- Active participation in scientific meetings
- Publications

Participate in International network

- Short stays in foreign research centres
- Conferences
- Internet and social networks

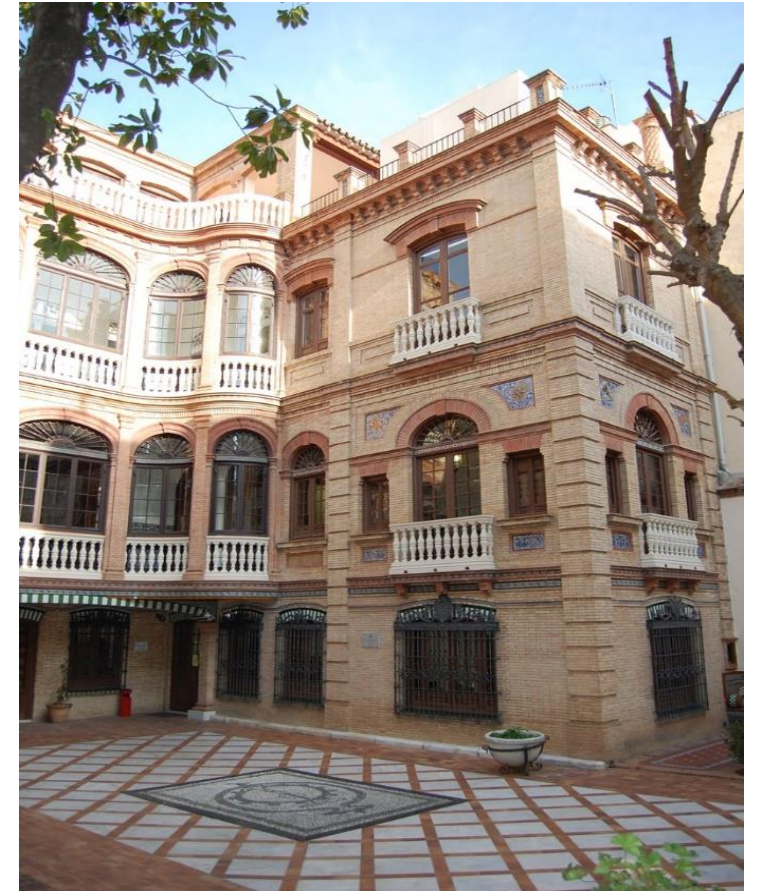

Active participation in University life.

Doctoral schools

INTERNATIONALIZATION AS MEAN RATHER THAN AN END

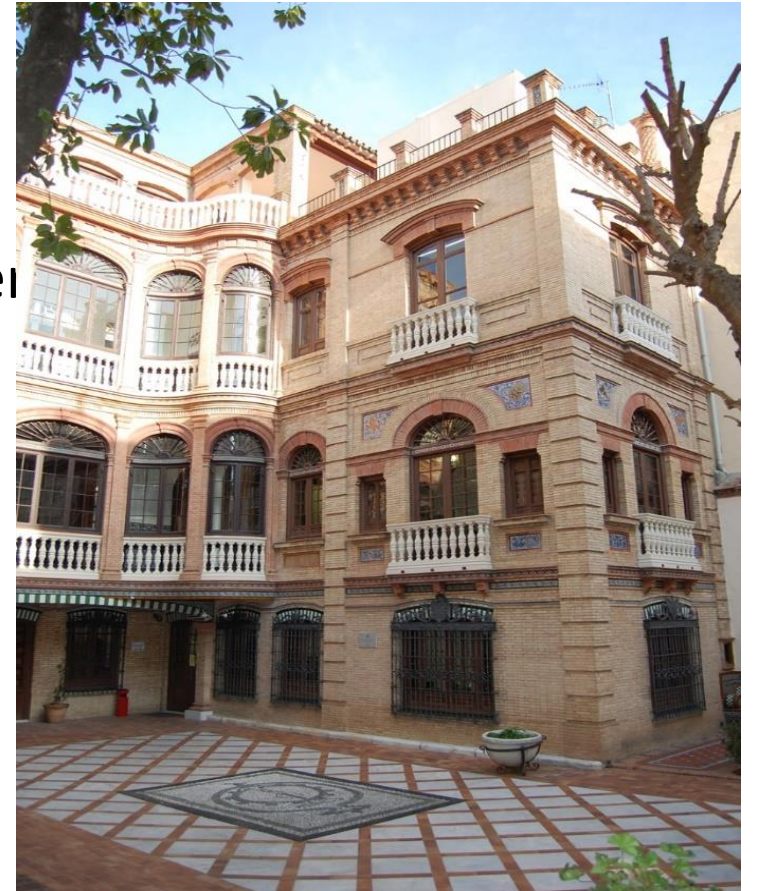

Tools for Internationalization

- Mobility
 - Erasmus (K103 & K107)
 - Fundacion Carolina
 - . AUIP
 - . Internal funds
- International Agreements
- Curriculum:
 - Cotutelle
 - Internationalization at home

The International PhD Mention

- Research stay in a foreign institution: minimum 3 months.
- Reports prior to the defense of 2 foreign experts.
- Part of the writing and defense of the thesis in a language other
- PhD committee: at least one foreign member.

Co-tutelle doctorates

- Is a doctoral degree awarded by two different institutions, who share the responsibilities of supervising, coordination and examining a researcher's work towards a PhD degree.
- The two institutions must be compulsorily from different countries

- Doctoral thesis with a supervisor from the University of Granada and another supervisor from the University of Ghent.
- The two universities reach an agreement of cooperation between both doctoral programmes, the PhD supervisors and their respective institutions.

Mapa político de Europa

University
Of Ghent

University of Granada

Santillana

Co-tutelle

The doctoral candidate:

- must have an approved PhD research proposal at Granada and Ghent University,
- must have a supervisor in each cooperating institution,
- must formally enroll at each institution and therefore pay the tuition fee,
- must carry out research at each institution for at least six months,
- must defend the PhD degree in one of the partner institutions.

The doctoral candidate:

obtains two diplomas, one by each university, but there is only one PhD thesis defence.

What are the benefits

- Access to complementary facilities and resources.
- Exposure to two cultural approaches to research.
- International student mobility.
- Enhanced acquisition of research and transferable skills, such as negotiation skills, use of videoconferencing, adaptability...
- Better networking opportunities for future job prospects.

DOCTORAL SCHOOLS

Learning from international networks

Coimbra, UNICA, AUIP, PRIDE, etc

Responsability and Engagement

- Students Organised in councils within the school (CRM, CRD)
- Represented in different committee
- Organised their own activities
 - ✓ Conferences
 - ✓ Professional meetings
 - ✓ Dissemination activities
 - ✓ Socially active and engaged

} Communication

Supervising

- Rising Awareness
- Supervision seminars
- Recognising supervision

Attracting talent & Visibility

- Summer Schools
- Summer seminars
- Dissemination
 - General Public
 - Scientific

CHALLENGE EMPLOYBILITY, WORKING WITH INDUSTRIES

Industrial Doctorate agreements

UNIVERSIDAD
DE GRANADA

ESCUELA INTERNACIONAL DE POSGRADO

DOCTORAL STUDIES University of Granada

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDIES.